

Achieve better results and take your company to the next level of performance!

By consolidating your purchases on a complete board, you save time and money while virtually guaranteeing overnight delivery of all items needed for production, in a single shipment!

Buyers have always used blanket orders, Letters of Intent, and schedules to insure they receive the best pricing and delivery of long lead-time items. This sensible approach can also be used on your entire Bill of Materials.

Our Kitting Advantages:

- Contract pricing on your entire Bill of Materials gives you lower overall costs.
- Prevent Shortages.
- Your components and boards are inventoried in our facility, at our expense.
- Decrease or eliminate excess inventory.
- Increase your cash flow: pay for the product as you need it.
- Reduce freight expenses: one shipment, one supplier.
- Less manpower: free up your valuable time.
- Streamline your vendor base, giving you more buying power.
- Franchised Lines and Support.
